

The do not call list is the best thing to stop the invading of my home by telemarketers. If they want to use my time to invade my private life i should be able to charge them whatever fee i chose. They have no right to engage me in any conversation without my written permission. It is a violation of my privacy. Please stop these unwanted calls.